Application & Admissions Form

The Southern Association of Workers' Compensation Administrators (SAWCA) and the Self Insurance Guaranty Funds of America (SIGFA) welcome you to the 2026 Roger L. Williams National Regulators College held August 24-25, 2026 in conjunction with the WCI convention at the Orlando World Center Marriott Hotel.

The curriculum represents a program specifically designed for regulators by regulators covering the full scope of regulatory responsibilities faced by today's state officials. Veteran regulators & renowned industry experts will lead a discussion-oriented format. Admission is open to all state regulators, state officials, workers' compensation judges, and state & federal legislators ... whether elected or appointed plus all non-state officials providing a regulatory service to state workers' comp system.

College Tuition is $375, and payment should be submitted with the application for admission. Make checks payable to SAWCA and mail to: SAWCA / P.O. Box 910373 / Lexington, KY 40591. Credit cards are accepted at: 859-219-0194. As a member of the College, you will enjoy breakfast & lunch on both days and receive a complimentary convention registration to the 80th Annual WCI Workers' Compensation Educational Conference and 37th Annual Florida Safety & Health Conference granting full access to WCI programs & evening events.
